

Art and Design Over view

We are all part of God's family. Through trying our best in all we do, we find a sense of belonging.
1 Corinthians 12:27 'All of you together are Christ's body and each of you is a part of it'

Art and Design at Horndon on the Hill Church of England Primary is designed to promote learning and personal growth for all our pupils, regardless of their starting point, ability or specific need. We want to provide opportunities for children to grow into positive, responsible citizens by developing their skills and knowledge, whilst working and cooperating with others ensuring all our pupils are inspired for future learning and employment.

Intent:

- Fulfil the requirements of the National Curriculum for art and design,
- ensure the progressive development of knowledge and skills,
- know that art can support their development in other subjects.

Implement:

- Art and design is taught as part of each topic,
- There is a focus on knowledge and skills stated in the National Curriculum,
- A variety of teaching approaches are used based on the teacher's judgement.

Impact:

- Moderation of pupil's books are scrutinised inline with the school's assessment policy.
- Pupil voice is collected, analysed and used to support future development in the subject.
- Art used in other areas of the curriculum and marked in books.
